Nominees statement
Why I want to be a Commission Chair and what I would like to achieve	To promote the vision of FIG to China, the country with the most population of the world. To share the experience from China with the members of FIG To make more understanding between the members of FIG.
What I can offer to FIG in support of the aims and objectives of the Commission	CIREA is the organization of real estate appraisers and agents. It maintains good relations with the organizations in appraisal and agency industry of many countries. As the Vice President of CIREA and if I could be the Chair of Commission 9, I will work with the delegates from other real estate related organizations, to work out more industrial standards.
My key skills	Communicating ability. Cooperativeness.
Any other general comments	I've involved in the activities within FIG for ten years and have worked with three Chairs of Commission 9 and the other members in Commission 9 and other commissions. I've learnt much from them and have been looking forward to serving them with my efforts.
