Nomination Template Vice President 2027-2030

Nominee’s statement
My motivation to be FIG Vice President:	For over a decade, I have actively championed a renewed, forward-looking vision for our discipline—one that positions Geomatics as a strategic, high-impact pillar in society. My motivation is to help FIG lead this evolutionary change globally, strengthen its influence, and ensure that our profession fully embraces digital transformation, innovation, and broader societal relevance.
What I can offer in support of FIG’s aims and objectives:	I offer a strong combination of academic, governmental, and international experience, with a proven ability to connect institutions, professionals, and young generations. I can contribute strategic leadership, high-level representation, and a results-oriented approach to advance education, land administration, and global outreach. My work within FIG—especially in education and youth engagement—gives me the insight and operational knowledge to meaningfully support the Council.
My key skills for the Vice Presidency and FIG Council:	Strategic Vision: Ten years advocating for a modern, evolved identity for our profession. International Experience: Active roles in FIG, APPAT, academia, and government. Leadership & Management: Executive responsibilities at the National Geomatics Agency and in professional associations. Communication & Diplomacy: Strong ability to build institutional relations and promote FIG’s mission. Technical Excellence: Award-winning expertise in Geomatics, education, and land administration.
Any other supporting information:	I bring a unique blend of academic excellence, governmental decision-making, and international representation—supported by a long-term commitment to FIG. My work with young professionals, education initiatives, and global projects reflects both my dedication and my ability to deliver. I believe this combination positions me to actively strengthen FIG’s global leadership in the coming term.
