

First FIG Young Surveyors Conference

Rome, Italy 4–5 May 2012

Knowing to create the future

The FIG and Member Associations can best support young surveyors by:

- Encouraging each country to nominate a young surveyor representative to FIG and to each FIG Commission
- Entrusting young surveyors with more responsibility, and delegating young surveyors with roles in decision making processes
- Ensuring information flows between the FIG and young surveyors
- Opening new doors of connection with international companies for internships and collaboration

First FIG Young Surveyors Conference

Rome, Italy 4–5 May 2012

Knowing to create the future

Young surveyors think the benefits of FIG are:

1. Opportunities (Professional development, access to industry leaders and peers)
2. Knowledge sharing (technical, cultural, problem identification and solving, mentoring)
3. Networking – forming an international community
4. Advocacy
5. Professional standards of practice

First FIG Young Surveyors Conference

Rome, Italy 4–5 May 2012

Knowing to create the future

The priorities for the FIG Young Surveyors network are...

- Motivating young surveyors by sharing skills and knowledge
- Connecting young surveyors
- Advertising the FIG and enabling young surveyor opportunities
- Create a guideline for a mentoring scheme
- Improving the visibility of the profession
- To inspire.
