

NEW DIRECTOR GENERAL AT ANCPI - ROMANIA

Recently, a new general manager was appointed to the National Agency for Cadastre and Land Registration in Romania (ANCPI) - Mrs. Ildikó RÁKOSI-SEIWARDH.

Mrs. Ildikó RÁKOSI-SEIWARDH has graduated from the Faculty of Law and gained a considerable professional experience in the field of real estate publicity.

At the beginning of his career, she worked at the Land Book Office of the State Notary in Harghita County. After the unification of the land book activity with the cadastre one in Romania, in 2005, she joined the National Agency for Cadastre and Land Registration as a land book registrar, and in 2007 she became chief land book registrar within the Regional Office for Cadastre and Land Registration – Harghita. She is passionate about her work and wants the institution she leads to have the most relevant role in supporting the country's economic development.

During her term of office, the new director general will direct her efforts towards the completion of the general cadastre in Romania. Registration on extravillan land in the cadastre and land registry records is a major national priority that will facilitate the implementation of policies at regional or national level, will boost the real estate market and stimulate investment.

"The challenges of the last year have affected economies on a global scale, and we must therefore focus our efforts to become more efficient. We need to offer better and better products and services that meet European quality standards. Undoubtedly, the partnerships developed over the last years with the international organizations and the exchanges of experience with specialists from other countries will contribute to the realization of these desideratums.

I am confident that through the teamwork, professionalism and enthusiasm of each of us, we will overcome the obstacles of the moment and we will contribute to the national prosperity as well as of each Romanian." said the new general manager on the occasion of the investiture.

Mrs Ildikó RÁKOSI-SEIWARDH is married and has two children. She is fond about art in general and about theater in particular, is a passionate traveler and believes that the beauties of the surrounding world enrich and develop the human personality. She is fluent in Hungarian.
